Anita Ekpo

This letter is to formally confirm that Anita Ekpo, a Nigerian filmmaker, researcher, and multidisciplinary artist, has been accepted to participate in the La Wayaka Current international artist residency programme.

Anita Ekpo has been selected to take part in the following programmes:

Desert Programme (Atacama, Chile): September 27 – October 18, 2026

Tropic Programme (Panama/Colombia): October 23 – November 13, 2026

La Wayaka Current is an independent, nomadic arts residency and research initiative working across remote natural environments, bringing together artists, researchers, and practitioners whose work engages with ecology, territory, and contemporary cultural practices.

Anita Ekpo was selected based on the strong alignment of her ongoing project, "Story Story," with the residency's interdisciplinary and research-based focus. Her work explores themes of memory, movement, identity, and lived experience through documentary storytelling, photography, and participatory engagement. Her proposed research during the residency will examine everyday narratives and systems of human interaction across different ecological and cultural contexts, contributing to the residency's emphasis on artistic inquiry, experimentation, and cross-disciplinary exchange.

The total participation cost for the residency has been partially subsidised through a reduced placement bracket of £2,200 GBP per programme, which covers accommodation, programme activities, research trips, local transport related to the programme, and access to a network of international artists and researchers.

This letter is issued to support Anita Ekpo in securing external funding, travel support, and visa documentation. La Wayaka Current fully supports her participation and believes her work will make a meaningful contribution to the programme. Should any additional information be required, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind Regards,

Sofie Iversen
